B. School District Hotspots-

The school district working and collaborating with Technology department and the chapters (Huerfano and Nageezi) to ensure students have hotspots to complete their assignments and to log on for virtual learning as school started. There are issues but they are being addressed and resolved.

C. Update: COVID-19

The district is still operating under mandate from Governor on closure and hopefully the schools will open back up soon. There is an Educational plan in place for students and their safety. Education packets have been received for students and will be available at the chapters (Huerfano and Nageezi). Ms. Beverley Tsosie has printed and compiled to deliver to the chapters and this will continue through this phase of virtual learning.

D. Update: JOM Grant

There has not been any update received for carryover directives or instructions for further budget and contract. Currently, we are still awaiting further process and approval from the JOM office for carryover and also the contract award amount.

E. IEC Recognition

Ms. Kimberly Becenti was invited to this meeting to give recognition for her support and membership as an Indian Education Committee member. Ms. Patricia Marquez presented her with a Pendleton shawl. This is in the Education plan, Comp #2 set for IEC recognition as an allowable expense. IEC member Honor/Recognition plans will be emailed to IEC members for Ms. Kimberly Becenti in few weeks, correspondence by email and phone.
